

21st Biennial Congress of IAEA
AESTHETICS + DESIGN
Dresden 2010

Call for papers

The 21st Congress of the International Association of Empirical Aesthetics will be held in Dresden, from August 25 to 28, 2010. It will be organized by the Association of Architectural Aesthetics, the International Association of Architectural Aesthetics and the Department of Architecture at the Technical University of Dresden.

CONGRESS PROGRAM

The congress program will consist of: (1) spoken papers, (2) Sessions and (3) Posters. The official language of the congress is English, with a few exceptions for German spoken contributions. There will be parallel scientific sessions for oral presentations held during each of the four days of the Congress. Invited addresses and Sessions will be scheduled throughout the program. An art exhibition will be open for the duration of the Congress.

PAPERS

The time allotted for spoken papers will be 20 minutes; 15 minutes for presentation and 5 minutes for discussion. Each presentation will have a designated time-slot assigned. The format for paper abstracts is described below.

Special Sessions will consist of a set of integrated spoken papers related to a theme. These will follow the same time schedule as the other sessions. Applications for Special Sessions should be submitted to the organizing committee, along with an abstract for the entire symposium, stating the rationale for the topic, the aims of the symposium, and the group of speakers proposed. A discussant may be included.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Participants will be welcomed at an Opening Ceremony and Welcome Reception without charge. A banquet at the world famous Eckberg Castle overlooking the Elbe River, a visit to Pillnitz Castle and a steamboat cruise on the Elbe River will be held in the evening of August 27. The price for this event is 70 EUROS and is not included in the registration fee. Note that there are only limited numbers of tickets available and we strongly recommend you to reserve your places on the registration form.
