Dear Members of IAEA,

We hope that you had a very enjoyable time since the last newsletter. There were exciting conferences, among them, 2017 Division 10 meeting at APA in Washington, the VSAC in Berlin. Documenta 14 in Kassel closed, but the Venice Biennale can still be visited.

We wish all the best to Dr. Nadal who became the new Editor-in-Chief of Empirical Studies of the Arts and again thank Oshin Vartanian.

Christian Allesch told us that the Der Ernst-E.-Boesch-Prize for Cultural Psychology 2017 was awarded to Lutz Eckensberger, the young researcher prize to Sarah Demmrich. Congratulations!

In this two-monthly newsletter we have several new publications from our members.

Most important the 2018 IAEA congress will be held in Toronto 30 August – 2 September 2018, organized by Oshin Vartanian

We wish you a productive period!

Helmut Leder and Stefano Mastandrea
