Dear Members of IAEA,
This is the latest newsletter of IAEA 2016. This has been a busy year for many scientists in Empirical Aesthetics. We hope you have an enjoyable time until the end of year. All the best with your ideas and studies, and see you soon again 2017. Next year there will be some interesting congresses such as the ECVP satellite conference “Visual Science of Art Conference in Berlin 25–27 August 2017, or the APA convention early August in Washington. Hope to see you there!

As usual, for additional information please see our website http://www.science-of-aesthetics.org. Also if you have any suggestions for the website or the association, please let us know.
